

NOTICE TO QUIT
EVICTION FOR NON-PAYMENT OF RENT

To Tenant: _____
at rental unit address: _____

Violation: You owe me rent in the amount of $ _____.
[This amount does not include any late fees or interest. A tenant can't be evicted for non-payment of late fees.]

Remedy: Pay the full amount of rent money you owe (listed above) by this date and time:

Date: _____ Time: _____ ☐ a.m. ☐ p.m.

[This date must be at least 7 days after the Landlord gives this Notice to the Tenant.]

If you pay your rent in full before the date and time listed above, you do not have to move.

If you do not pay your rent or move by the date and time listed above, I may start a court case to evict you.

Pre-Filing Information Sheet

Your landlord has given you a Notice to Quit. This is the first step in the eviction process. If you and your landlord do not work things out, your landlord may start a court case to evict you.

A Notice to Quit tells you:

- The reason the landlord wants to evict you,
- A way to fix the problem, if it can be fixed, and
- The day you need to move out by to stop the landlord from starting an eviction case.

Do not ignore the Notice to Quit.

Act

If you ignore the notice to quit, your landlord may start a court case to evict you.

You have options:

- Try to fix the problem,
- Talk to your landlord and try to work out an agreement, or
- You move out.

It is always a good idea to get legal information and advice.
